Job Description:
Student Callers contact Alumni, Parents, and Friends of The University at our Crimson Calling Center here on campus. We call and update alumni records and collect gifts given to the National Alumni Association as well as to other departments on campus.

If hired, student callers will complete a paid orientation and training program. After two days of training, you will begin calling on behalf of our organization.

If you have any questions, please contact Emily Hall at the Crimson Calling Center.
Email: eahall@alumni.ua.edu

Calling Shifts for Spring semester include:

- Students are required to work two nights a week, (Monday through Thursday nights from 5:55pm-9pm). That’s only 6 hours a week!
- Student Callers will have the option to add additional shifts once training is complete.
- Students who are interested in the position can email their resume and evening availability (Mon-Thur) to: eahall@alumni.ua.edu by 11/22/19

The Crimson Calling Center is located on the second floor of the McMillian Building on campus. This employment opportunity is great for Full Time Students. You’ll get to practice your communication skills and marketing/sales skills while building up your resume!
